News

Okay, the holidays are over, you've had some fun (I hope) maybe you've decided to make some changes in your life, do better in school or get serious about your future. No matter what your decisions were, they bring you back here to GCI where you have already started on your path to a better life.

Good to see you again!

Quote to start 2011

"Ability is what you are capable of doing. Motivation determines what you do and attitude determines how well you do it"

Message Corner

Lets congratulate three of our very own that are putting GCI's name in the national arena.

1. Instructor Joan Nichols was elected to the National Board of Directors of the AMTA
2. Instructor Bruce Costello was selected by the AMTA to conduct a massage workshop at the 2011 convention which will be held October 19-22 in Portland, OR.
3. Instructor Chris Bottoms serves on a AMTA committee as Subject Matter Expert to help develop a comprehensive continuing education program for massage therapists in the area of myofascial release.

Georgia Career Institute is fortunate to have Joan, Bruce and Chris working with the AMTA is different ways.

Way to go guys!

For those that don't know, AMTA stands for American Massage Therapy Association. The AMTA is a pioneer organization for massage schools, massage therapists and the massage industry with over 50,000 members.

GCI is a AMTA recognized school
